

Women in Dance Career Pathways

Guidance and Mentorship with Sandra Parks

Guiding dancers from training to college, professional careers, and beyond.

Personalized mentorship, coaching, and career guidance for dancers pursuing educational and professional opportunities in dance.

Mentorship
1-on-1 guidance from
industry professionals

College Prep
Application & audition
support

Career Coaching
Transition planning for every stage

Womenindance.com

Who We Serve

Supporting dancers at every stage of their educational and professional journey.

High School Dancers

College planning, scholarships, auditions, and training pathways.

College Dance Majors

Professional auditions, internships, graduate school, and career planning.

Emerging Professionals

Auditions, resumes, networking, and career development.

International Dancers

Guidance for studying, training, and working in the United States.

Areas of Support

College Planning

School selection
BA/BFA Options
Scholarships

College Applications & Auditions

Prescreens
Résumés
Interviews

Professional Career Planning

Companies
Training Programs
Career Goals

Professional Audition Preparation

Videos
Materials
Feedback

International Education & Career

Study in the U.S.
Training Programs
Career Pathways

Career Development

Teaching
Choreography
Arts Leadership

Why Work with Sandra

Sandra Shih Parks brings more than twenty years of experience as a performer, educator, artistic director, executive director, university faculty member, and mentor.

Her professional experience includes leadership roles in:

- Choate Rosemary Hall
- Drexel University
- Louisiana State University
- Colorado Conservatory of Dance
- Women in Dance

Sandra has guided dancers through college preparation, professional development, leadership growth, and career transitions in the United States and internationally.

Areas of Expertise

College Admissions • Professional Auditions • Career Planning • International Opportunities

Student Pathways

Recent students and mentees have pursued opportunities including:

- New York University (Tisch School of the Arts)
- University of Arizona
- University of Utah
- Professional training programs
- Professional Company Contracts
- Careers in dance education, choreography, and arts leadership

"There is no single path to success in dance. Every dancer deserves thoughtful guidance, meaningful opportunities, and support in discovering the path that is right for them."

— Sandra Shih Parks

Womenindance.com

How It Works

- ① Submit an Inquiry
↓
- ② Introductory Conversation
↓
- ③ Personalized Plan
↓
- ④ Ongoing Mentorship

Every dancer's journey is unique.

Women in Dance Career Pathways recognizes that success in dance can take many forms. Whether your goals include college study, professional performance, graduate school, teaching, leadership, entrepreneurship, or lifelong engagement with dance, guidance is tailored to your individual aspirations.

Ready to Explore Your Next Step?

Whether you are preparing for college auditions, exploring professional opportunities, or considering where dance can take you next, Women in Dance Career Pathways is here to support your journey.

Schedule an Introductory Conversation

Sandra@WomeninDance.com

WomeninDance.com

